32nd Sunday in Ordinary Times , Sunday 6th November 2016

In November...
Longing for one more day.

When we lose someone we love it seems that time stands still.

What moves through us is a silence...a quiet sadness...
A longing for one more day...one more word...one more touch...

We may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say goodbye.
But little by little we begin to remember not just that you died but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget.

We will see you again someday in a heavenly place where there is no parting. A place where there are no words that mean good-bye. (Anon)

In November we remember in our prayers all our loved ones who have died.

The special Mass of Remembrance was celebrated on Wednesday night last in the Parish Church. It was a very sacred time to remember and to pray for our loved ones. There is a special sacred space created in the church where you are invited to include the names of those whom you are remembering during this month of November. Mass will be celebrated each morning during November for all those on the November list of the dead.
